Welcome

Schäferstüble

Welcome

The Schäferstüble team looks forward to welcoming you to our restaurant. Let our staff spoil you and enjoy special moments with good drinks and delicious food.

We pay great attention to quality and regionality. Starting with our wines. We purchase an exclusive selection from the Hagnau winegrowers' association. These wines are not available in stores, but are only offered occasionally in restaurants. We also offer spirits from the Black Forest and our own distillery.

To bring the best to the table for all meat lovers, we serve only the best quality. Our lamb dishes come either from our own sheep or are sourced regionally. But it's not just the quality of the meat that is important to us. We use other regional products in our kitchen. For example, we source bread from the local Lindenwirts. To highlight the regionality in terms of flavour, many components of the dishes are homemade. This includes, for example, all the sauces, the herb butter, fried onions and the lamb patty for our popular lamb burger.

We wish you great time with us!
